Up to 50 visual art pieces will be chosen for display by our visual art juror.

Work must be available the entire duration of the exhibition and may not be delivered late or released early.

Westminster reserves the right to refuse any entry and to withdraw any work from the exhibition at its discretion.

Liability: Although every precaution will be taken to avoid damage on site, we do carry insurance coverage (max $4,000 per piece) for theft or damage throughout the festival. However, in the event artists cannot pick up their work by the specified time after the closing of the exhibit, the extra coverage time is limited. Work left beyond a month after the closing is considered forfeited.

Sale of Works: Accepted visual art entries may be designated for sale, if desired. Westminster will receive 20% commission on sales. If a work is not for sale, indicate NFS on the entry form. No PORs (Price on Request). Works for sale must have prices listed along with an indication of whether framed or unframed, if applicable. Works offered for sale are sold as exhibited; no substitutions or other copies of the same work.
